There was a fast basketball game last Saturday night in the American auditorium between the Cheleka team of Youngstown and Canfield's first team. The visitors undertook to rough it up when they found the game going against them but what they got was a plenty. The local lads won 34 to 19.

Something like a score of years ago Canfield permitted an opportunity to secure the W. H. Hoover Co. plant located at New Berlin, Stark county to get away. The industry is the most important in the town, employing a large number of men. The firm started in making collar pads. The European war has greatly stimulated its business. An order for $200,000 worth of artillery harness parts has kept the plant running night and day for weeks. An order has just been booked by the firm for $40,000 worth of leather equipment for gun carriages.

While George Hulsebos, son of John Hulsebos of this township, was riding a motorcycle to Youngstown about 6 o'clock Monday evening he collided with an automobile near the residence of Lewis Zimmerman, just east of Cornersburg, and suffered a compound fracture of one leg. He was also badly cut and bruised. His machine was wrecked. It is not known who occupied the automobile he struck as it did not stop after the accident. Mr. Hulsebos turned out to pass a carriage ahead of him and did not observe the automobile in front of it until too late to prevent the collision. The young man was taken to the Youngstown City hospital for surgical attention.

DEATH OF MRS. MARY CALVIN

Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Calvin died last Friday afternoon at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. Calvin Ewing, in Youngstown. The deceased never recovered to any great extent from the injuries which she sustained December 22 when she was struck by a street car as she was crossing Federal street just west of the public square. She was in the City hospital for about two weeks following the accident and was then removed to her home. She was unable to regain her strength but gradually weakened. About ten days ago erysipelas developed and since that time Mrs. Calvin's condition had been critical and the end when it came was not unexpected.

Mrs. Calvin was the daughter of Francis A. and Elizabeth J. Frethy, and was born January 21, 1842, in Pittsburgh. In that city she spent her childhood and girlhood days and was one of the first students to receive her education in the Pittsburgh high school. She was married three times, her first husband being Charles Long of Pittsburgh, the second Dr. John E. Fowler of Canfield and the third Allen Calvin of Canfield. The first two died while quite young men and Mrs. Calvin passed away nine years ago. Mrs. Calvin first came to Canfield to live half a century ago and since the death of Mr. Calvin has lived with her daughter in Youngstown and Canfield. She was for years a member of the Presbyterian church of Canfield and was widely known in this community. She had a large number of friends by whom she was loved and respected.

Surviving her are two children, Mrs. J. Calvin Ewing of Youngstown, and J. V. Calvin, of Ennsley, Ala. She also leaves one sister, Mrs. A. L. Stroud, of Coraopolis, Pa. Miss Elizabeth Frethy of Canfield is her last surviving first cousin.

Brief funeral services were held Monday afternoon from the Ewing home in Youngstown after which the remains were brought to Canfield and services were held in the Presbyterian church at 1 p. m., being in charge of Rev. John Heisl, pastor of Youngstown Tabernacle U. P. Church and Rev. T. L. Kierman of the Canfield Presbyterian church. The pallbearers were Roy Dells, Frank Watson, C. V. Calvin, Allen, Frank and Harry Ewing. Interment was made in the village cemetery.

FOUND DEAD IN BED

Mrs. Mary Sophia Rothgeb was found dead in bed, Thursday morning at her home 1 1/2 miles north of the village, death having resulted from a valvular heart trouble from which she had suffered for some time. Deceased was the daughter of Isaac and Hettie Corli and was born in Canfield in January, 1855, consequently had passed her 60th birthday. About 25 years ago she was married to Peter Rothgeb who died of typhoid fever in Niles four months after his marriage. Mrs. Rothgeb returned to Canfield after the death of her husband, living at the old home, keeping house for her brother Sherman. She was an excellent woman and endeared herself to a wide circle of friends. Early in life she united with Zion Reformed church and lived a consistent Christian life. She is survived by two brothers and three sisters, Sherman and Henry Corli and Mrs. Sarah Sanzenbacher of Canfield, Mrs. Edna Moss of Austintown and Mrs. Julia Mitter of Beaver Falls, Pa. Funeral services will be held Saturday at 1 p. m., central time, from Zion Reformed church. Revs. I. N. Burger and J. C. Schaaf being in charge. Interment will be made in Zion cemetery.

Death of Mrs. O. B. Fales.

Mrs. O. B. Fales died last Friday evening at her home in Niles after an illness of three years with heart trouble and complications. Deceased was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Ferrell and was born in Cleveland Oct. 10, 1854, consequently had passed her 60th birthday. When seven years old she came to Canfield with her parents and here most of her life was spent. She was married to O. B. Fales July 2, 1873. The result of this union was one daughter, Mrs. A. C. Yeungling of Salem, who, with the husband, survive her. Seven years ago Mr. and Mrs. Fales went to Salem to live and two years later removed to Niles which had since been their home. Throughout her long illness Mrs. Fales bore her suffering uncomplainingly. Early in life she became a member of the Canfield Presbyterian church. Besides her husband and daughter she leaves one brother and three sisters—D. S. Ferrell of New Castle, Miss Hannah Ferrell and Mrs. May Hubble of Canfield, and Mrs. Ida B. Moore of Roanoke, Va. Brief services conducted by Rev. F. S. Toensmeyer were held at the Niles home Saturday afternoon and the remains were taken to the home of Mrs. Yeungling in Salem where funeral services conducted by Rev. W. L. Swan, were held Monday afternoon. Interment was made in Hope cemetery. The family desires through the Dispatch to thank friends and neighbors for the many kindnesses shown during the long illness and after the death of Mrs. Fales.

The discovery of hoof and mouth disease in the dairy herd of W. H. Hurford of Garfield has resulted in a ten-mile radius quarantine being established. It will not doubt be weeks before the quarantine is lifted. Mr. Hurford's cows, which must be slaughtered, are valued at $700.

The dreaded hoof and mouth disease made its appearance Tuesday among the herd of Wilbur Hurford, near Garfield. A state veterinary inspected the herd of ten cows which have been quarantined since Sunday morning and pronounced seven of the cows suffering with the cattle scourge. All the infected cows will be slaughtered and buried in quicklime. Numerous exposures are feared.

Attorney Roscoe Winnage of Warren, implicated with G. S. Clause of Youngstown in trouble with G. E. Jones, was shot in the back Tuesday night and he is now in the Warren hospital but will recover. He claims that he was shot when an attempt was made to rob him. Officers declared that his wound was self-inflicted and point to the fact that his coat and flesh were powder-burned, showing that the shot was fired at close range. They also declare that he feared the trial which faced him as Clause had confessed to taking $50,000 in stocks and bonds from a safe belonging to Jones and that the valuable documents were held by Winnage for some time. The property taken has been recovered, Clause having taken officers where he had concealed.

Colds and Grip in Children.
